

PRESS RELEASE

Regal Group sets its sights on expansion in Milton Keynes

MK printers and publishers, The Regal Group, based in Bletchley, is delighted to announce the appointment of both Paul Gowin, in the new role of Customer Relationship Manager and Sam Keech as Sales Executive.

Paul joins Regal with an extensive management career in public service and a wealth of knowledge on Milton Keynes and the surrounding regions, and will be responsible for raising company profile in MK and the surrounding areas, liaising with customers on all aspects of print as part of Regal Litho.

Sam Keech, with several years' experience in sales, joins the team to enhance the existing team in the Groups Print-Distribution-Publishing sector, Guideline Publications.

Both new appointments add a new dynamic to the Regal team combining a wealth of experience and great customer service.

Paul said: "Being offered the chance to join the team at Regal Litho was an opportunity I couldn't resist. I'm very proud of what I've achieved with an extensive 20 year specialist management career in public service but I'm now looking forward to taking on a new commercial challenge. I've followed the achievements of The Regal Group for some time and can't wait to help them achieve even greater success."

Alan Corkhill, Managing Director, The Regal Group said: "I'm delighted that Paul and Sam have joined my team. It's an exciting time for The Regal Group as we seek to grow our local printing and publishing work, and I have no doubt having them as part of my team will be a great asset moving forward. Pauls' expertise in networking alongside his knowledge within media, will enhance and support all the full range of client services that Regal Litho has to offer."

Paul Gowin, Customer Relationship Manager, Sam Keech, Sales Executive, Alan Corkhill, Managing Director and Mark Lewis, Sales Director.

Mark Lewis, Sales Director, Sam Keech, Sales Executive, Alan Corkhill, Managing Director and Paul Gowin, Customer Relationship Manager.